

Collaborative Leadership Workshop for Educators By Matt Nink

Bangaluru (8th Sept, 09) Delhi (10th Sept, 09) Mumbai (11th Sept. 09)

Venue

Bangaluru - Mallya Aditi International School.
New Delhi - Sanskriti School.
Mumbai - B.D. Somani International School.

Time

Registration 8.00 a.m.
Workshop Time 8.30 a.m.-1.30 p.m.

Building Student Leaders

Become a more effective and responsible teacher in your school by:

- Defining collaborative leadership
- Separating cooperation from collaboration
- Learning to amplify the abilities of other
- Evaluating your communication styles and strengths
- Building empathy and compassion
- Engaging in conflict resolution
- Ideal for Moderators and Advisors of:
 - student councils, class boards or other elected student leaders
 - sports captains
 - unelected leaders and "influencers"
 - honor societies and leadership clubs
 - emerging leaders in younger grades

Collaborative leadership in action

Explore the lessons of

- Group accountability, social responsibility
- Classroom activities to build collaborative leadership
- Definitions of leadership in the classroom and at your school
- Connections between diversity, global education, and leadership

GYLI Past Workshop and Programs

GYLI has run successful leadership development programs in the US and Costa Rica since 2002

- Tall Ship Workshops
- Mountain retreats
- International Programs with NAIS (National Association of Independent Schools)
- Collaborative Leadership and Global Pluralism that creates connections across lines of race, religion, class and gender.

Learn more at www.gyli.org

Workshop cost: Rs. 2500 per participant, includes workshop material

Duration: 5 hours

Participant Profile: Principals, Administrators, Teachers, Counselors, Researchers, Education policy advocates and Social workers.

Chapters International is a global provider for customized workshops, in-services, educational conferences and other consulting services in education sector, which aid the professional development of educators.

To know more, please visit www.chaptersinternational.com

Shonal Agarwal

President & CEO, Chapters International

Tel- +91 9818362535 Email: shonal@chaptersinternational.com